

NIPISSING UNIVERSITY

SCHOOL OF BUSINESS

Bachelor's Degree in Commerce for Business Administration Graduates

In the rapidly changing world of business, a degree is now required for most designations, accreditation and employers. Today, a degree is a requirement towards obtaining an accounting designation as well as the human resources designation. As your career path becomes more defined, you need educational opportunities to meet these requirements and prepare you to compete in the workplace.

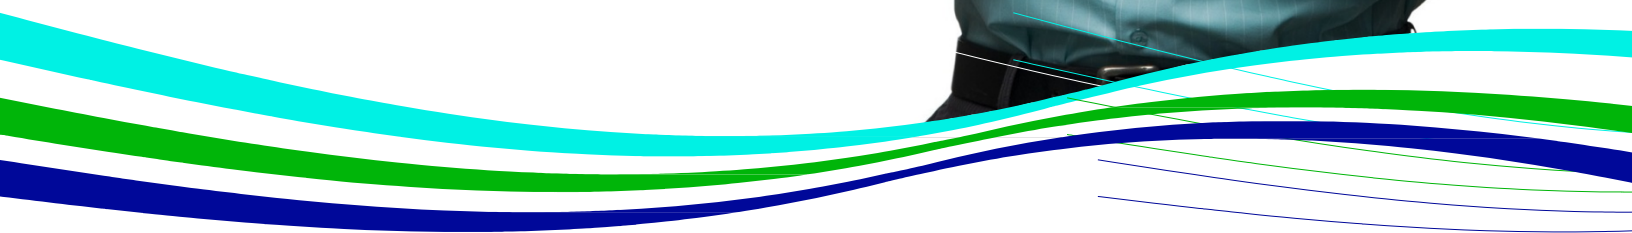

The Nipissing University Bachelor of Commerce degree provides you with a general business education which will augment the specific area of concentration from your 3 year Business Administration Diploma. (i.e. Accounting, Marketing, Human Resources, International Business, Materials and Operations Management, Financial Services or General Business)

You can now complete your BComm degree at Algonquin's Woodroffe campus in Ottawa. With our flexible program delivery method and academic resources, you can continue your education without changing your location.

Students graduating from Algonquin in an approved business-related discipline with a minimum GPA of 2.9 would be granted advanced standing by Nipissing University. This means you can earn a Bachelor of Commerce in 12 months by completing 5 courses in each of 3 consecutive terms.
