

FOUNDATIONS OF EARLY CHILDHOOD EDUCATION

FAM7414

Course Description

Early Childhood educators are professionals who require a strong foundation in the history and philosophy of early childhood education in Canada and globally. Students begin to examine the impact of policies, legislation and regulations across all levels of government on early childhood education. Students also examine the impact of cultural and family systems on early learning programs and professional relationships.

For More Information :

