

Julie Beauchamp, Ph.D.
Senior Vice President Academic, Algonquin College

Dr. Julie Beauchamp assumed the role of Senior Vice President Academic at Algonquin College on August 19, 2024, following an extensive national search. With nearly three decades of experience in postsecondary education, Dr. Beauchamp is a seasoned leader, bringing a wealth of expertise in both academic administration and leadership.

Before joining Algonquin College in 2020, Dr. Beauchamp held several prominent positions at the Telfer School of Management, University of Ottawa. Her roles included Vice-Dean Programs, Executive Director of the Centre for Executive Leadership, and Undergraduate Programs Director. During her time at the Telfer School she taught several undergraduate and graduate level courses in the Bachelor of Commerce, the Master of Business Administration, and the Executive MBA programs. Her academic focus spans human resources management, organizational behavior, business communications, and leadership and change management.

At Algonquin College, Dr. Beauchamp first served as Dean of the School of Business, later overseeing the integrated School of Business and Hospitality. During her tenure, she demonstrated strong leadership, a commitment to student success, and an innovative approach to program development and administration.

Dr. Beauchamp's academic credentials include a Ph.D. from McGill University, a Master of Science from l'École des Hautes Études Commerciales (HEC), and a Bachelor of Commerce from the University of Ottawa. Her extensive professional experience and academic background make her uniquely qualified to lead the academic area at Algonquin College.

Beyond her responsibilities at Algonquin, Dr. Beauchamp is actively involved in the community. She serves as Vice-Chair of the Board of Directors for the Ottawa Network for Education (ONFE)